Dearest Darling,

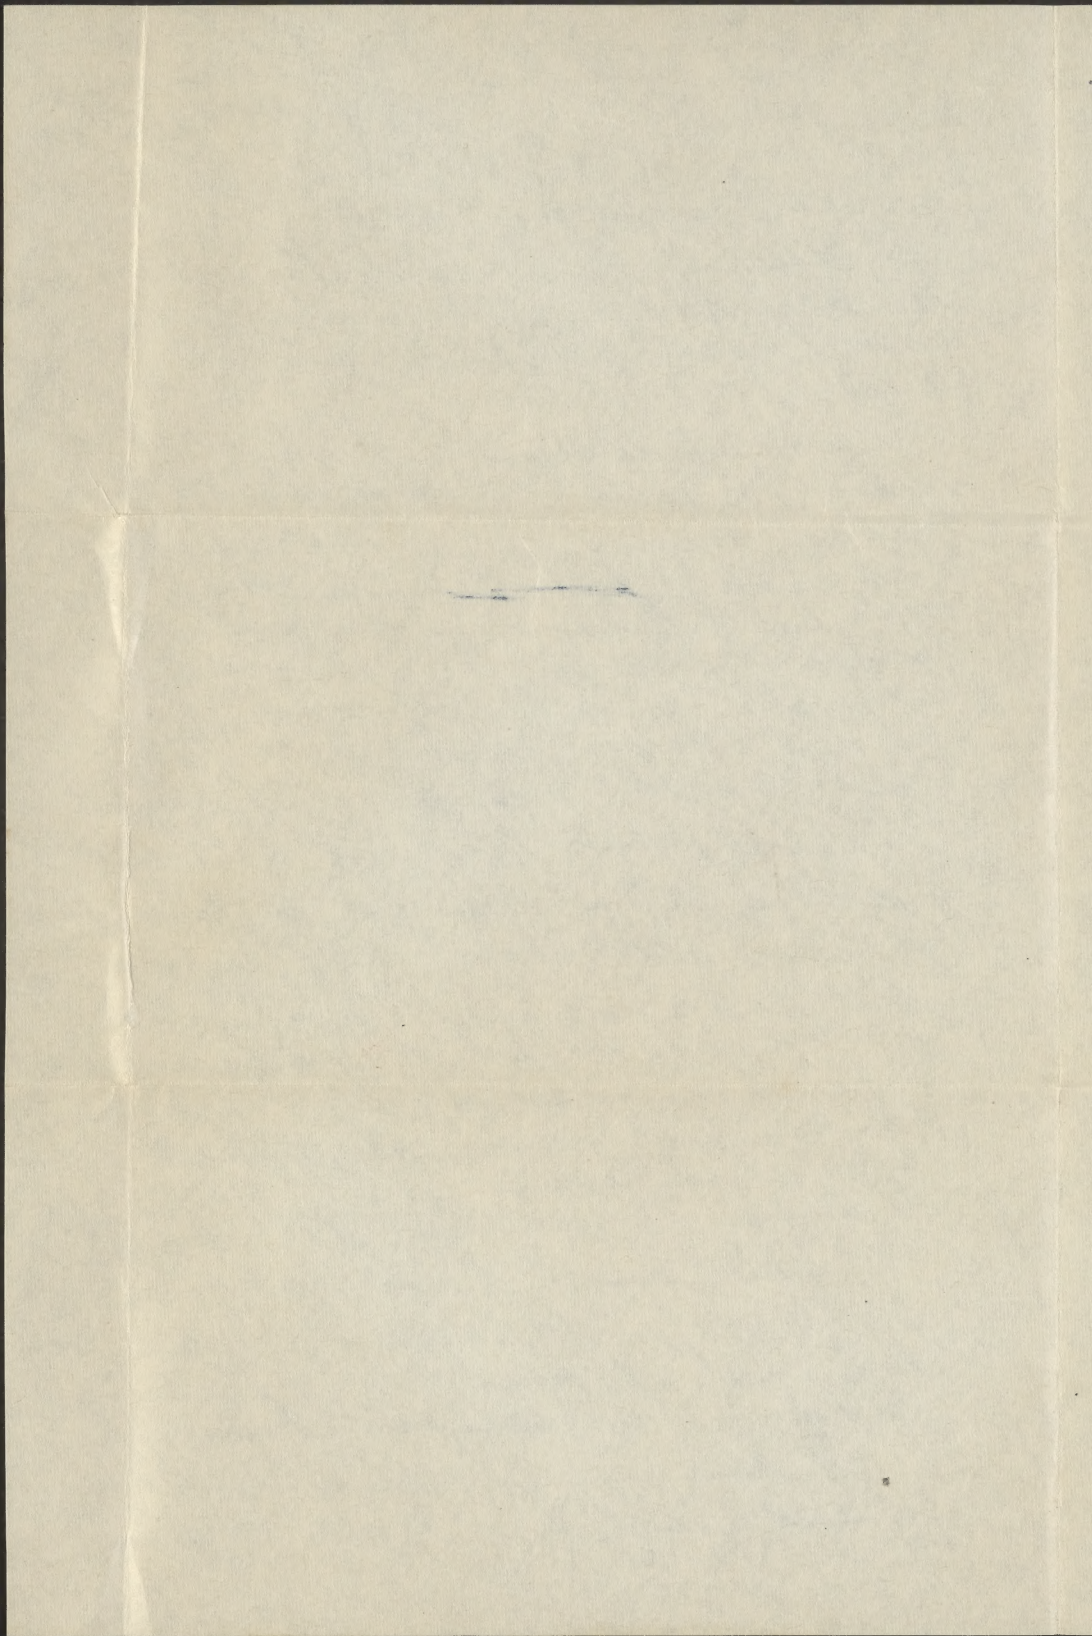

How is your cold by now?
Be careful that you don't take more cold. I didn't take it either.!!!

Uncle Calvin's cat moved today. A fellow from Paola moved them. It is just a mile and a half ~~west~~ east of the schoolhouse where Aunt Coras brats go to school. It is on the north side of the road, just a ways back of the ^{main} road.
You can tell H. J. the directions.

Daddy took Mr. Cook's tractor & pulled H. J.'s car in to town Monday afternoon. H. J. didn't tell Uncle Calvin that anyone was supposed to get the car.
So Dad found the guy down there looking it over. The patrol also was investigating, trying to find out whose car it was.

You should have seen my lib' red face Monday. Those whiskers of yours are terrible.
Ohhh-- my chapped face.

I haven't seen Ellus! Sab!
I heard he asked Betty to go to the show with him & she refused! Can you imagine. I don't know how he got up the courage to ask. Is he?

News! I never heard of it before!
Shirley sure can smoke. She smoked 3 cigarettes & a pipe of tobacco & a piece of a cigar. She one Dad didn't finish Saturday nite! I didn't make her sick.
She didn't wait any length of time between smokes either.
She pipe or cigarette either would have made me sick. Shirley hasn't gone to school any this week. I guess can't get in here.

It sounds like it might be a pretty weekend. I H O P E. for a change. I'm so tired of this weather.

you can't call me my nickname this weekend. I'm going to wash my hair & take this junk off of it. Red! It isn't either.

I haven't gotten my shoes cleaned off yet. Have you?

Will you be in Saturday evening on the bus? Please come & see little lonesome me.

(Over)

I'm going to make a "devil's food" cake Friday. You better be hereto eat it!!!

I'll let you know now that I'll be in town Saturday. Probably Saturday afternoon. I have a little business to take care of. You'll find out later!!! No questions!!!

Well, darling, I'm about to run out of anything to write. So I'll just close for now. See you Saturday. Be Good!!

Always
Your Margie

Love & kisses a dozen & more.
